

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Master of Public Health: International Public Health, Monash University 2003
- Bachelor of Economics: Major: Management/Economics, Monash University 2000

CAREER HISTORY:

MANAGING DIRECTOR

Aug. 2008 to present

Review Consulting International, Australia

- Assisting companies, contractors, government and NGOs to improve their reporting requirements and facilitate improved outcomes
- Delivering services to corporations, government and the aid industry including: project monitoring and evaluation, baseline research, data analysis & strategic implementation

PROJECTS

Monitoring & Evaluation Specialist– Asian Development Bank

Current

Solomon Islands, Pacific

- Managing the final quantitative and qualitative evaluation of the Post Conflict Emergency Reconstruction Project

Lecturer– Latrobe University

Current

Victoria, Australia

- Lecturing the International Health Economics Course

Analyst– Hassell

Oct. 2008 – Jan. 2009

Queensland, Australia

- Reviewing effectiveness through quantitative surveys and providing recommendations to management
- Assisting and managing the Moreton Bay Regional Council Amalgamation Project
- Preparing detailed staff feedback for 1600 employees across three sites
- Presenting research and studies to the board of the Moreton Bay Regional Council

Researcher– Wesley Mission Employment Services

Sept. – Oct. 2008

Victoria, Australia

- Researching the employment services areas in Victoria to respond to the upcoming tender for the federal government employment services contract 2009-2012
- Conducting quantitative research on demographics and local government services

SENIOR CONSULTANT and MONITORING & EVALUATION SPECIALIST -
CARDNO ACIL Sept. 2006 to July 2008

Queensland, Australia

- Identification and monitoring of commercially and/or strategically attractive funding opportunities for the region of South, Central Asia and Africa.
- Providing strategic input in the development and expansion of regional activities.
- Project Management of a range of projects including: The PNG Australian Sexual Health Improvement Program, the Maldives Tsunami Community Reconstruction Project, the Australian Tsunami Warning System Project, and the Solomon Islands Road Improvement Project.
- Developing and maintaining external working relationships with multilateral agencies officials; including the Asian Development Bank, World Bank, AusAID; New Zealand Aid, French Red Cross & Geoscience Australia.
- Liaising and negotiating with government representatives in Australia, UK, Costa Rica, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands and Vanuatu

Key Achievements:

- Successful procurement of contracts including the Solomon Island Road Improvement (Capacity) Project, $A35 million – ADB, and the Post Tsunami Construction Works - Site Supervision on Gan Island Laamu Atoll – Maldives, French Red Cross - $A750,000
- Effective negotiation of a number of successful joint ventures and associations with partner organisations and individual consultants on projects and tenders

June 2008

Indigenous Environmental Health Infrastructure Program, $A60million – Client: Commonwealth Department Family, Housing, Community Services & Indigenous Affairs (FHCSIA)

- Completion of an internal review the Aboriginal Infrastructure program

Jan. to Mar. 2008

Papua New Guinea Australia Sexual Health Improvement Program, $A20.4 million – AusAID

- Completion of a monitoring and evaluation reviews for 5 Australian NGOs participating in the PASHIP Project for consistency in meeting AusAID requirements.

Mar., Sept., Nov., Dec., 2007

Solomon Island Road Improvement (Capacity) Project, $A35 million – ADB

- Initiating the project monitoring system, and completion of a quantitative and qualitative baseline survey in three provinces of the Solomon Islands
- Benchmarking the capacity in the Ministry of Infrastructure and Development

- Providing hands-on training to domestic consultants and Transport Policy and Planning Unit staff on data collection, data analysis, survey design, monitoring, and evaluation
- Reviewing the existing Monitoring and Evaluation Program and establishing a project performance and monitoring system.
- Providing guidelines for baseline values for subprojects, data collection and analysis.
- Designing and approving indicators to the agreement of all stakeholders

Aug. to Sept. 2007

Papua New Guinea Australia Sexual Health Improvement Program, (PASHIP) $A20.4 million - AusAID

- Redrafting the Institute of Medical Research M&E Framework for the PASHIP Project in Papua New Guinea (PNG)

PROGRAM DIRECTOR - Youth Challenge International
(NGO), Port Vila, Vanuatu

Dec. 2004 to Aug. 2006

- Implementing the Ni Vanuatu Skills Development Program, involving 40 youth each year to go through 4 distinct Vocational Training Programs in computer literacy, life skills, resume' writing, and community development projects to enable youth to engage in employment or training outcomes
- Management of the youth program with 90 volunteers each year
- Initiating joint proposals with relevant organizations in securing donor funds
- Establishing plans and business models to support Youth Challenge International's strategy
- Management of donor relationships with AusAID, especially in regard to Health, Youth, Capacity Building and Institutional Strengthening
- Serving as a spokesperson for Youth Challenge International; attending and presenting at forums, and promoting Youth Challenge International with key media personnel

Key Achievements:

- Directing 8 community development projects per year, including small construction projects and Youth Skills Summits to empower youth and raise awareness of health-related issues, including HIV/AIDS.
- Increasing strategic partnerships with NGOs
- Participating in the Emerging Pacific Leaders' Dialogue 2006

LECTURER & COURSE COORDINATOR – LATROBE UNIVERSITY

Melbourne, Australia

Nov. 2003 to Sept. 2004

- Lecturing and Course Coordination of the International Health Economics Course and tutoring Masters Students in the analysis of the Australian Health Care System including evaluation of international systems for health finance.
- Lecturer for the Indonesian Health Economics Program

Key Achievements:

- Design of the International Health Economics Course and initiation of a new international component to the Public Health Program.

