

PROFILE:

---

- Mark Power has extensive experience in and knowledge of monitoring and evaluation, qualitative & quantitative data analysis, project management, baseline surveys, donor liaison and community consultation with a proven ability to highlight the effectiveness of projects in government, corporate and aid sectors.

QUALIFICATIONS:

---

- Master of Public Health: International Research Methods, Monash University 2003
- Bachelor of Economics: Major: Management/Economics, Monash University 2000

PROJECT EXPERIENCE:

---

RESEARCHER & MONITORING & EVALUATION SPECIALIST Current
Review Consulting International; Clients: Hassell, Wesley Mission, SIRIP, La Trobe University

MONITORING & EVALUATION SPECIALIST June 2008
Indigenous Environmental Health Infrastructure Program, $A60million – Client: Commonwealth Department Family, Housing, Community Services & Indigenous Affairs (FHCSIA) and the Queensland Dept of Local Government Sport and Recreation

RESEARCH, MONITORING & EVALUATION SPECIALIST Jan. to Mar. 2008
Aug. to Sept. 2007
Papua New Guinea Australia Sexual Health Improvement Program, $A20.4 million – Australian Agency for International Development (AusAID)

MONITORING & EVALUATION EXPERT Mar., Sept., Nov., Dec. 2007
Solomon Island Road Improvement (Capacity) Project (SIRIP), $A35 million – Asian Development Bank, with bilateral partners AusAID and NZAid.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

---

MANAGING DIRECTOR July 2008 to Present
Review Consulting International www.reviewconsulting.com, Australia

SENIOR CONSULTANT Sept. 2006 to July 2008
Cardno Acil, Queensland, Australia

PROGRAM DIRECTOR Dec. 2004 to Aug. 2006
Youth Challenge International (NGO), Port Vila, Vanuatu

HEALTH ECONOMICS LECTURER & TUTOR Nov. 2003 to Sept. 2004
La Trobe University, Melbourne, Australia